Changes - If you have chosen a fare that allows changes, in addition to the listed change fee, the fare difference (if applicable) and a reissue fee is collected when the routing or fare type changes. In USA the reissue fee is 20USD. If permitted, changes must be done within the validity of the ticket. If the departure is from Europe, the validity is normally 12 months and from outside of Europe 1 ? 12 months. In many ticket types also restrictions for minimum stay apply. More information from Finnair.

Cancellations - If you have chosen a fare that allows changes, in addition to the listed cancellation fee, a service fee is collected for all partial refunds. In USA the service fee is 75USD. For price combinations the most restrictive cancellation rule applies.

Flights must be taken in the sequence shown on the ticket.

If passenger is a no-show on the outbound flight, the ticket for the inbound flight is cancelled.

If the reservation was made seven days or more prior to the flight's scheduled departure time, you can cancel it within 24 hours without refund fee

Checked baggage - Free baggage allowance on Finnair operated flights per Travel Class:

Business class : 2-3 PC, maximum weight of 23 kg (51 lb) per piece and maximum external dimensions (height + length + width) of 158 cm (62 in.).

Priority security - See link for details

Priority check-in & boarding - If the ticket type includes Priority check-in and boarding, the benefit is available on Finnair operated flights and FlyBE-operated AY2000-series flights in Helsinki and international destinations.

Name change - If the ticket type allows changing passenger, it can be done on AY operated flights and FlyBe-operated AY2000-series flights. Contact Finnair for details. Name change must be made latest 1 day before the departure of the first flight segment. For price combinations the most restrictive name change rule applies."

When you have accepted the terms of the fare and the charge, you will receive a booking confirmation. When you pay with a credit card, your card will be debited after the booking confirmation has been sent. The customer is obligated to provide correct credit card information and to make sure that the card has enough credit to pay for the total amount of the reservation. The trip is confirmed when the sum has been paid. The e-ticket receipt, which is sent after the booking confirmation, is a confirmation that the reservation has been paid. You will also receive a separate receipt for any additional services you have selected.

Please make sure that you have a valid passport with you if necessary for your routing. Also notice that a visa may be required for your destination and/or your transit station. Please contact the embassy of your destination and transit station for information on visa requirements.

Thank you and have a nice trip!
